

Please do not relax regulations on cross-media ownership. Removing the fair comment/public service requirements for TV made a bad situation worse. Mega-media corps are waiting to gobble up all competition, making themselves the only news outlet in a market (Orlando will be one of the first). Please do NOT change the FCC regulation.